CLASS HISTORY

One beautiful day in September of 1943, 31 eager and talkative students climbed the long hill to start their first day of school. Out of those 31 greeted by Mrs. Hange, our teacher, only 15 are left - Dorothy Aukerman, Paul Amheiser, Diane Brainard, Richard Byers, Judy Eaken, Jim Ginter, Dick Indoe, Dan Kindig, Judy Payn, Don Reusch, Dick Snader, Don Travis, Jeanne Hagans, Sandy Underwood, and Pat Warner.

In the second grade, we were welcomed by Miss Loomis. During that year, Diane Brainard moved away for a short while.

The next year, we gained and lost a student. Leslie Lawrence joined us and Jeanne Hagans left us. Miss Grimm was our teacher.

We were anxious to start the fourth grade and see Miss Morton because then, we got to play on the other side of the building.

At last--we were in the fifth grade and upstairs. Miss Kiplinger met us and tried to keep us under control. It was rather hard because our class was increased by three new pupils, Paula Shepherd, John Elgin and Darrel Woodward.

In the sixth grade, Mrs. Harmon supervised us in collecting sales tax stamps for a new radio. LaDonna Holmes, Larry Gynn and Pat Farr came to help us with this new project.

We were very proud to know that finally we had reached Junior High School. Mrs. Eastman and the rest of the faculty tried to make us settle down, but somehow, they never succeeded. Diane Brainard joined us again this year and Judy Eaken moved away.

In the eighth grade we were greeted by Mrs. Schafer. It seems that we were a little bit too rough so she had to make use of a little thing called the ruler. We were glad to have Virginia Dewey and Sharon Lance this year.

Our class grew by leaps and bounds in our freshman year. We gained Russ Gasser. Dave Grim, Russ Miller, Cindy Noggle, Dick Sabin, Nancy Scholdel, Walter Skidmore, Edna Whinery, Shirley Tomes, and Larry Young. Mrs. Haugh helped us with our activities.

Steadily we climbed to the sophomore class. Under the direction of Mr. Burton, we got first place in the float contest that year. At the end of the year Jeanne Hagans came back to be with us.

We found our junior year to be busier than ever. We sold pencils and other small items and had both the football and basketball concession stands. Under the direction of Miss Caroll, we had a very successful class play, "Hillbilly Weddin'". The biggest event of the year was the Junior and Senior Banquet which was held at Spring Valley Country Club on April 30. With the help of Mr. Burton who went on to the Junior Homeroom with us and the aid of two new students, Judy Eaken and Dean Snider, we had a good year.

SENIORS! The year has finally arrived when we rule the roost. This year we have the big job of preparing our annual but with the help of Mr. Burton, the job didn't turn out to be so big.

We had a wonderful time this year and I guess we all hate to leave Lodi High but some day you will hear of us again.

CLASS PROPHECY

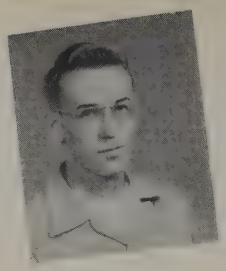
MYSTERIOUS SCROLL

Several months ago I was visiting a friend in Maine and because of the beautiful scenery there I decided to take a stroll. I was walking down a little path when it started to sprinkle. I was surprised to find an old, deserted house set back off the road just a little distance from me. The house was spooky looking but I was glad for a place to stay.

While I was there I thought I might as well explore it. In one of the rooms I found a little chest. The lid was open so I looked inside. I found a piece of yellowed paper and written on it was the following:

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1955

Paul Amheiser, after many hard years of work, has invented the automatic farm.
Dorothy Aukerman, because of an unfortunate love affair, has become a nun.
Diane Brainard, has become the successful manager of the world's largest chewing-gum factory.
Richard Byers, because of his great strength, is playing SUPERMAN on TV.
Virginia Dewey, who found a cure for Love Fever, a very contagious disease, will travel to prominent hospitals to administer her formula to its victims.
Judy Eaken is now a Senator of Ohio. She is running for President in the next election.
John Eglin is manager of the glue factory in the city of Lodi, Ohio.
Patricia Farr is married and operates the Aldo Diner at Lodi.
Russel Gasser is a minister of five small churches in West Virginia.
James Ginter is running a parking lot. They say business is very good.
Dave Grim is Dean of Vasser College for girls.
Larry Gynn has put to use all he has learned in agriculture class by buying a thousand acres of unirrigated land in Africa and raising onions.
Jeanne Hagans, because of her dancing ability, has become a famous bubble dancer in New York City.
LaDonna Holmes is one of the world's best explorers. She has made five successful trips to Africa.
Dick Indoe is a famous star at Columbia Pictures Inc. His latest picture is Frankenstein's Son.
Dan Kindig having cultivated a great knowledge of firearms, will become manager and owner of a shooting gallery.
Sharon Lance, a famous mystery writer, just published her latest best seller, "Mystery at the Core of the Earth."
Leslie Lawrence is drawing up plans for our new United States Capitol building.
Russel Miller has become a news reporter on station J-E-R-K in Australia.
Lucinda Noggle has taken over her father's business, driving a truck.
Judy Payn, in behalf of her knowledge in chemistry, will go to Alaska and propagate a new species of icebergs guaranteed to keep their bulk and weight in the torrid zone.
Don Reusch now plays professional football for the Cleveland Browns.



Dick Sabin is now on TV. He has taken Red Buttons place.
Nancy Schondel won the Miss Ohio contest and will go to Atlantic City soon for Miss America contest.
Paula Shepherd, believe it or not, is a Powers model. She has a penthouse apartment overlooking the Hudson River in New York.
Dick Snader has his own garage now. He calls it the "Slow Motion."
Walter Skidmore, a pilot for Pan American Airlines, wrecked his plane in Siberia and has been lost for the past seven years.
Derrel Woodward has a great future in the army. He does more KP duty than the whole regiment.
Don Travis, world famous detective, will make a trip to the moon in search of a clue for his latest mystery, "Death of the Man in the Moon."
Shirley Tomes has a nice soft job. She is a mattress tester in a display window at Macy's, 5th Avenue.
Sandy Underwood, because of her great artistic abilities, will go to England to paint Queen Elizabeth's portrait.
Pat Warner is now in Alaska selling soda pop to the Eskimos.
Edna Whinery is married to the owner of a well known dairy company.
Larry Young, because of his knowledge of cars, has become a hot-rod racer.
Sylvia Sprinkle, because of her vast knowledge of people, has become a famous nurse.

After I finished reading this supernatural writing, I glanced out the window and noticed the sun was shining again.

I was about to leave when I noticed a trap door opening at my feet. A large, scarred, yellow hand protruded, the floor went away beneath me and --------- just at that moment I awoke -------- I had fallen out of bed.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1955, being of sound mind and body, do make and publish this, our last will and testament.

SECTION I

ARTICLE I — To Mr. Woods, we express our graditude for putting up with us after lunch. We are sure he could think of better places to be.

ARTICLE II — To Mr. Skurvid we leave a new set of steel nerves so he can keep his smile through the tortures of the following driving classes.

ARTICLE III — To Mrs. DeZort, we leave all the unreturned excuse blanks which have been cluttering up our books.

ARTICLE IV — To Mr. Weir, we leave all the unreadable record books in hopes he will finally figure them out.

ARTICLE V To Miss Sechrist, we leave her the coming speech classes in hopes that she can enjoy them as she did ours????

ARTICLE VI To Mrs. Schafer, we leave our sincere thanks for joining in our gossip sessions.

ARTICLE VII To Mr. Dunham, we leave all our dirty bandages, broken splints and mixed-up locks as a token of apprecition.

ARTICLE VIII To Mr. Herrick, we leave our hopes for better luck in a winning football team.

ARTICLE IX To Mrs. Dowdell, we leave an efficient reading glass whereby she can find errors in English, misplaced commas, periods and etc.

ARTICLE X To Miss Irvin, we leave a slightly used Home Economics Department.

ARTICLE XI To Mr. Shibley, we leave a better-mannered third period study hall.

ARTICLE XII To Mr. Burton, we leave -- so he can recover from the cause of his major illness (senior-class).

ARTICLE XIII To Mr. Pietezak, we leave him a new lab in hopes he can bring up future Einsteins.

ARTICLE XIV To Larry, we leave him all the used gum behind the radiators which are never warm.

SECTION II

ARTICLE I To the Juniors, we leave the never ending steps to the senior home room and higher learning.

ARTICLE II To the Sophomores, we leave all the HAPPY and CAREFREE days we have had in high school.

ARTICLE III To the Freshmen, we leave the hope that Mr. Wood will buy new government books (Ohio) by the time they are seniors.

SECTION III

ARTICLE I Paul Amheiser wills his football ability to Skip Bryant.

ARTICLE II Jeanne Hagans wills her pretty smile to Nancy Miller.

ARTICLE III Dick Sabin wills his red suspenders to Dave Lanigan, knowing that Dave can make more use of them than he did.

ARTICLE IV Paula Shepherd wills her ability, all of the time, to do nothing, any of the time, to Charlene Brinker.

ARTICLE V Dick Snader wills his ability to run over county road signs and get away before anyone gets his license number to Tom Arters.

ARTICLE VI LaDonna Holmes wills her ability to put her hair up every night to Birdie Sivard.

ARTICLE VII Don Travis wills twelve years of experience of getting out of work, especially school work, to John Ferguson.

ARTICLE VIII Pat Farr wills her ability to skip school every day to anyone who thinks they can get away with it.

ARTICLE IX Dave Grim wills his way with women (especially women teachers) to his little brother, Willy; he needs it badly.

ARTICLE X Judy Eaken wills the highway between Lodi and Wellington to anyone who wants it.

ARTICLE XI John Eglin wills his front seat in Mr. Weir's car on F.F.A. field trips to Dick Gasser.

ARTICLE XII Shirley Tomes (the farmer) wills her ability to be able to tell when she gets close to home by her nose to anyone who's got that smelling ability.

ARTICLE XIII Larry Gynn wills his laughing ability to John Fetherolf.

ARTICLE XIV Nancy Schondel wills her ability to goof around and be caught at the same time to anyone who wants to try it.

ARTICLE XV Larry Young wills his football ability to be "All American" to Jack Carpenter.

ARTICLE XVI Edna Whinery wills her ability to be the "Life of the Party" to Jerry Payn.

ARTICLE XVII Don Reusch wills his ability to give the cue for laughs to any Junior who sits in the front seat in Government next year.

ARTICLE XVIII Virginia Dewey wills her ability to skip school fourth period to her sister Dorothy who had better get started.

ARTICLE XIX	Derrel Woodward wills his ability to get shot with an arrow (cupid's) and not bleed to death to Bill Daly.
ARTICLE XX	Sandy Underwood wills her art ability to Mr. Jones.
ARTICLE XXI	Leslie Lawrence wills his enjoyment of mathematics to Tommy Underwood who has an eye for figures, but still doesn't care much for math.
ARTICLE XXII	Pat Warner wills her ability to go downtown and eat fourth period and get back before the bell for dismissal rings to Don Darrah who already has a good start.
ARTICLE XXIII	Dorothy Aukerman wills her dirty glasses to anyone with a loose shirt tail and the ability to go downtown with Pat fourth period to George Gedos.
ARTICLE XXIV	Dan Kindig wills his third period library, Senior's meeting place, to Larry Scott and hopes he survives.
ARTICLE XXV	Judy Payn wills her height to Rita Padgett.
ARTICLE XXVI	Walter Skidmore wills his quiet ways to Tom Scott.
ARTICLE XXVII	Diane Brainard wills her ability to wear out her jaw muscles talking and chewing gum to her sister Bonnie who already has a good start.
ARTICLE XXVIII	Russ Gasser wills his beard to Jim Carpenter.
ARTICLE XXIX	Sharon Lance wills her silence on the school bus to Trudy Wood and Janice Kindig who need it.
ARTICLE XXX	Russ Miller wills his ability to "Hot Rod" through town and get caught to his brother, Delbert.
ARTICLE XXXI	Cindy Noggle wills her 5'1½" to Birdie Sivard.
ARTICLE XXXII	Jim Ginter wills his quiet (?) reverent ways to Roger Martin in hopes he uses them more.
ARTICLE XXXIII	Richard Byers wills the muffler off his scooter to Jack Bittner.
ARTICLE XXXIV	Dick Indoe wills his straight legs to John Ferguson.
ARTICLE XXXV	Sylvia Sprinkle wills her ability to come to Lodi High School in the middle of the year and do all the make-up work to anyone who is unfortunate enough to have such luck.
